

CLAUSELINE

BUDGET APPROVAL PACKET — FOR GME & FINANCE OFFICES

Contract-literacy education for your graduating residents — the one-page approval brief.

A residency coordinator or program director has asked to purchase ClauseLine for the outgoing cohort. This page contains what the resource is, why it sits on an education budget line, the price options, sample purchase-order language, and the vendor-of-record details your office needs to process it.

WHAT THE PROGRAM IS BUYING

- Contract-literacy education materials — specialty-specific curriculum on compensation models, productivity math, non-compete terms by state, malpractice and tail exposure, and negotiation mechanics.
- Per-resident analysis reports — each resident submits their own employment offer and receives a written clause-by-clause educational report benchmarked against published specialty compensation data.
- Coordinator dashboard — issue and track redemption codes; nothing to install, no IT involvement.

WHY IT IS AN EDUCATIONAL EXPENDITURE

- Resident financial and contract literacy is the entire scope — a curriculum gap programs are not resourced to teach.
- No clinical content, no patient data, no PHI exposure at any point.
- Residents' contracts are never shared with the program and are deleted after 90 days.
- Typical budget lines: resident education, professional development, or GME discretionary funds.

$995

Code Pack — 20 analyses

$49.75 per resident, vs the $97 individual rate. Right-sized for one graduating class.

$2,495

Program License — annual

Unlimited access for all current and incoming residents of one training program.

SAMPLE PURCHASE-ORDER LANGUAGE

"ClauseLine contract-literacy education program for graduating residents — 20-analysis code pack, incl. per-resident written contract-review reports and coordinator administration dashboard. Vendor: Clauseline LLC. One-time purchase, $995."

VENDOR OF RECORD

Clauseline LLC — Wyoming limited liability company
1603 Capitol Ave, Ste 415 #235101, Cheyenne, WY 82001
W-9 with federal tax ID available: ops@clauseline.com

HOW FULFILLMENT WORKS

Purchase by card or invoice at clauseline.com/institutions. Redemption codes are issued same-day to the coordinator dashboard; an itemized receipt naming the seller entity and federal tax ID accompanies every purchase.

clauseline.com/institutions · ops@clauseline.com

Educational analysis — not legal or financial advice. ClauseLine is not an accredited CME provider and awards no credit hours; whether employer or program funds cover it is governed by each institution's own policy.